

CEPA Rules of Origin for Goods
Applying for Zero Tariff in the Second Half of 2012

(Courtesy translation)

Serial No.	Mainland 2012 Tariff Code	Product Description	CEPA Rules of Origin
1.	1604 1110*	Prepared or preserved Atlantic Salmon (whole or in pieces, but not minced)	Smoked salmon manufactured from chilled salmon originating from countries or territories which have signed preferential trade agreements with Mainland China prior to 2012. Principal processes include defrosting, cutting, marinating, air-drying, cold-smoking, slicing and vacuum packing.
2.	3901 9090	Other polymers of ethylene in primary forms	(1) Change in Tariff Heading. If manufactured from plastics wastes, the plastics wastes should be produced from manufacturing operations or consumption in the Mainland or Hong Kong; or (2) fulfill the value-added content requirement.
3.	3907 1010	Polyoxymethylene in primary forms	(1) Change in tariff heading; or (2) manufactured from polymers, cross linker and other chemical ingredients by chemical modification.
4.	3907 1090	Other polyacetals (except polyoxymethylene) in primary forms	(1) Change in tariff heading; or (2) manufactured from polymers, cross linker and other chemical ingredients by chemical modification.
5.	8518 2100	Single loudspeakers, mounted in their enclosures	Assembled in Hong Kong and to fulfill the value-added requirement.
6.	8518 2200	Multiple loudspeakers, mounted in the same enclosure	Assembled in Hong Kong and to fulfill the value-added requirement.
7.	9405 4090	Other electric lamps and lighting fittings	Manufactured from bare bulbs and stand accessories. The principal process is assembling and to fulfill the value-added content requirement.

Note: *The CEPA rule of origin concerned covers only the “smoked salmon” product under Mainland 2012 tariff code 1604 1110.