(1) The provisions in this Agreement relative to the grant of treatment not less favourable than that accorded to the investors of either Contracting Party or to investors of any other State shall not be construed so as to oblige one Contracting Party to extend to the investors of the other the present or future benefit of any:

- (b) international agreement, international arrangement or domestic legislation regarding taxation.

(2) Regulations to facilitate the frontier traffic between Austria and her neighbours shall not be invoked as the basis of most favoured nation treatment under this Agreement.

Such compensation shall amount to the real value of the investment immediately before the deprivation or before the impending deprivation became public knowledge whichever is the earlier, shall include interest at a normal commercial rate until the date of payment, shall be made without undue delay, be effectively realizable and be freely convertible.

(2) The investor affected shall have a right, under the law of the Contracting Party making the deprivation, to prompt review by a judicial or other competent or independent authority of that Party, of the lawfulness of the expropriation. ARTICLE 8

Subrogation

(1) If one Contracting Party or its designated Agency makes a payment under an indemnity given in respect of an investment in the area of the other Contracting Party, the latter Contracting Party shall recognise the assignment to the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency by law or by legal transaction of all the rights and claims of the indemnified investor and that the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency is entitled to exercise such rights and enforce such claims by virtue of subrogation, to the same extent as that investor. This shall not affect the rights of the investor of the first Contracting Party under Article 9 of this Agreement or the rights of the first Contracting Party under Article 10 of this Agreement.

(2) The former Contracting Party or its designated Agency shall be entitled in all circumstances to the same treatment in respect of the rights and claims acquired by it by virtue of the assignment and any payments received in pursuance of those rights and claims as the indemnified investor was entitled to receive by virtue of this Agreement in respect of the investment concerned and its related returns.

(3) Any payments received by the former Contracting Party or its designated Agency in pursuance of the rights and claims acquired shall be freely convertible. Such payments shall also be freely available to the former Contracting Party for the purpose of meeting any expenditure incurred in the area of the latter Contracting Party.

(4) A Contracting Party which is a party to an investment dispute under Article 9 of this Agreement shall not, at any stage of conciliation or arbitration proceedings or enforcement of the award, raise the objection that the investor who is the other party to the dispute has received by virtue of a guarantee indemnity in respect of all or some of its losses.

ARTICLE 9

Settlement of Investment Disputes

Any dispute between an investor of one Contracting Party and the other Contracting Party concerning an investment of the former in the area of the latter which has not been settled amicably, shall, after a period of six months from written notification of the claim, be submitted to such procedures for settlement as may be agreed between the parties to the dispute. If no such procedures have been agreed within that six month period, the parties to the dispute shall be bound to submit the dispute to arbitration under the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law as amended by the last amendment applicable to both Contracting Parties. The parties may agree in writing to modify those Rules.

ARTICLE 10

Disputes between the Contracting Parties

(1) If any dispute arises between the Contracting Parties relating to the interpretation or application of this Agreement, the Contracting Parties shall as far as possible settle it by negotiation.

(2) If the Contracting Parties fail to reach a settlement of the dispute by negotiation within six months, it may be referred by them to such person or body as they may agree on or, at the request of either Contracting Party, shall be submitted for decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators which shall be constituted in the following manner:

- (a) within thirty days after receipt of a request for arbitration, each Contracting Party shall appoint one arbitrator. A national of a State which can be regarded as neutral in relation to the dispute, who shall act as President of the tribunal, shall be appointed as the third arbitrator by agreement between the two arbitrators, within sixty days of the appointment of the second;
 - (b) if within the time limits specified above any appointment has not been made, either Contracting Party may request the President of the International Court of Justice, in a personal and individual capacity, to make the necessary appointment within thirty days. If the President considers that he is a national of a State which cannot be regarded as neutral in relation to the dispute or if he is otherwise unable to discharge this function, the Vice-President or if he is likewise unable to discharge this function, the most senior member who is not disqualified on those grounds shall make the appointment.
- (3) Except as hereinafter provided in this Article or as otherwise agreed by the Contracting Parties, the tribunal shall determine the limits of its jurisdiction and establish its own procedure. At the direction of the tribunal, or at the request of either of the Contracting Parties, a conference to determine the precise issues to be arbitrated and the specific procedures to be followed shall be held not later than thirty days after the tribunal is fully constituted.
- (4) Except as otherwise agreed by the Contracting Parties or prescribed by the tribunal, each Contracting Party shall submit a memorandum within forty five days after the tribunal is fully constituted. Replies shall be due sixty days later. The tribunal shall hold a hearing at the request of either Contracting Party, or at its discretion, within thirty days after replies are due.
- (5) The tribunal shall attempt to give a written decision within thirty days after completion of the hearing or, if no hearing is held, after the date both replies are submitted. The decision shall be taken by a majority vote.
- (6) The Contracting Parties may submit requests for clarification of the decision within thirty days after it is received and such clarification shall be issued within fifteen days of such request.
- (7) The arbitral tribunal shall reach its decision on the basis of internationally recognized rules of law. The decision of the tribunal shall be final and binding on the Contracting Parties.
- (8) Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of the arbitrator appointed by it and of its legal representation in the arbitration proceedings. The other costs of the tribunal shall be shared equally by the Contracting Parties including any expenses incurred by the President, Vice-President or most senior member of the International Court of Justice in implementing the procedures in paragraph 2(b) of this Article. The tribunal may, however, in its award determine another distribution of costs.

ARTICLE 11

Application

The provisions of this Agreement shall apply to all investments whether made before or after the date of its entry into force.

ARTICLE 12

Entry into Force

This Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the third month that follows the month during which the Parties have notified each other in writing that their respective requirements for the entry into force of this Agreement have been complied with.

ARTICLE 13

Duration and Termination

- (1) This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of fifteen years and thereafter shall remain in force indefinitely, unless terminated in accordance with paragraph (2) of this Article.
- (2) Either Contracting Party may terminate this Agreement at any time after it has been in force for fifteen years by giving one year's written notice to the other Contracting Party.
- (3) Notwithstanding termination of this Agreement pursuant to paragraph (2) of this Article, the Agreement shall continue to be effective for a second and final period of fifteen years in respect of investments made before the date of termination of this Agreement.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
