

HK Awards for Industries winners to share success stories

Tuesday, March 10, 2009

The Support and Consultation Centre for SMEs (SUCCESS) of the Trade and Industry Department will hold a seminar on March 24 (Tuesday) at which Grand Award winners of the 2008 Hong Kong Awards for Industries (HKAI) will share their valuable experiences and success stories.

The HKAI recognises outstanding Hong Kong enterprises for their achievements, particularly in moving towards higher technology or higher value-added activities.

Speakers at the seminar will comprise representatives of Grand Award winners from five of the categories under the 2008 award scheme - machinery and machine tools design, environmental performance, innovation and creativity, productivity and quality, and technological achievement.

The seminar will be held on March 24 at 2.30pm in the Lecture Theatre, ground floor, Hong Kong Central Library, 66 Causeway Road, Causeway Bay, Hong Kong (MTR Tin Hau station exit B). It will be conducted in Cantonese. Admission is free.

Interested parties are requested to register with SUCCESS by March 20 (Friday). Please visit the SUCCESS website (www.success.tid.gov.hk) for details of the seminar and for on-line registration. Registration forms can also be downloaded from the SUCCESS website. Please fax the completed registration form to SUCCESS (2375 7105). Seats will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.

For enquiries, please call 3403 6111.
