83 companies honoured at Hong Kong Awards for Industries

Monday, November 28, 2022

Eighty-three local companies were honoured today (November 28) at the 2021-22 Hong Kong Awards for Industries (HKAI) presentation ceremony held at the Hong Kong Science Park.

The Grand Award winners were Curie Limited (innovation and creativity), Geek Plus International Co Ltd (technological achievement), Karrie International Holdings Limited (upgrading and transformation), Solos Technology Limited (consumer product design) and L K Technology Holdings Limited (equipment and machinery design).

A total of 204 entries were received in the 2021-22 HKAI. The winners were decided by the final judging panels chaired by Professor Way Kuo.

The HKAI aims to recognise the outstanding achievements of Hong Kong enterprises in pursuit of advanced technology and high value-added activities, and to commend excellence in enhancing competitiveness, service quality, and various aspects of their performance.

The 2021-22 HKAI covers six categories, namely the innovation and creativity category organised by the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce, the technological achievement category organised by the Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation, the upgrading and transformation category organised by the Hong Kong Young Industrialists Council, the consumer product design category organised by the Federation of Hong Kong Industries, the equipment and machinery design category organised by the Chinese Manufacturers' Association of Hong Kong, and the customer service category organised by the Hong Kong Retail Management Association. The Trade and Industry Department serves as the Secretariat of the Organising Committee of the HKAI.
